

Letters to The Editor

Ever since his Arkadelphia speech Oct. 19 advocating the removal from the voting lists of persons receiving Welfare cash grants or surplus commodities state-wide mail has been coming to Alex. H. Washburn, editor and publisher of The Star. The Star will endeavor to publish all letters. Here is the second group.

Dear sir: In reference to your piece in the Memphis Commercial Appeal on address at Arkadelphia...

Let me commend you, sir, on this address. For a long time I've had the same idea in mind. Would like a condensed form of this address to circulate in Phillips county. I'm a firm believer that good government begins in the community.

Please quote prices on a condensed circular of your speech to the Arkadelphia Kiwanis Club.

Dear sir: I read in today's Arkansas Gazette that the political Welfare scandal would be solved if the welfare recipients could not vote; and you are correct.

These people on welfare — I am their friend, having set up the welfare in my county when first established by President Roosevelt. I have knowledge from contact over these many years, and I find if you or anyone else expresses an opinion we are put on a list of "political enemies" and are detached from the state. And from the county departments on down through the case workers they begin telling the people on the welfare rolls what will happen to them if they don't follow the political code in Little Rock.

You have one of the threats the state welfare office mailed out with the checks (I have one). This puts these people in a very hard position, as some are not receiving enough to keep body and soul together.

The people on welfare are not to be blamed. I traveled all over the state the year the legislature passed the one-cent sales tax increase (1957) for the purpose of hiking the classroom teachers' salaries, and I know this bill was going to be introduced. I don't know whether you would be interested in learning why the welfare agency entered into this fight, but they are now getting some 4 million dollars a year. This is matched by the government, and with some 50,000 people on OAA the checks have been raised to some $45 a month from the $33 they formerly received. What has become of this money? I have the full story and why they turned on me. I would like to talk with you some time when you are in Little Rock.

Batesville, Ark.

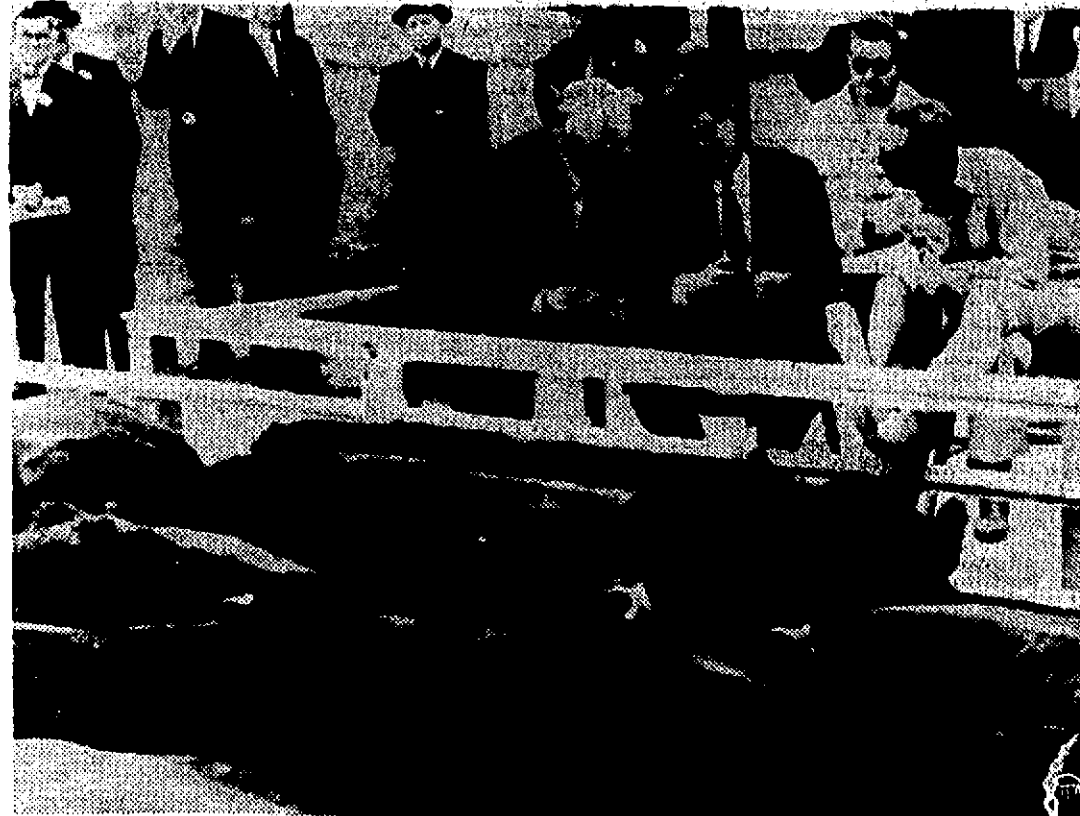

Dear sir: Regarding your statements at Arkadelphia, as reported by the Arkansas Gazette in its issue of October 20...

You, of course, are fully aware of the fact that in order to attain your objective of "breaking the arbitrary power of grabbing politicians" you will face considerably more forces than you have mentioned.

I take it that you are a successful businessman. If that is true, it follows that you possess average knowledge of people. If you do possess average knowledge of people you do know, beyond any doubt in your mind, that from every elected official special consideration can be had for a price. You do know that the nation's laws, and expenditures of tax revenue, are the result of groups or organized pressure. You do know that no single individual, nor any unorganized group, can obtain recognition or consideration from the installed authorities. You do know the authorities are elected by the voters and influence of members of organized groups who believe they have already ascertained that the politicians will be their church boys.

Now then, Mr. Editor, you meet the real test — the rather awesome task of waging a vigorous campaign to disenfranchise. All pensioned ex-military persons, "veterans' survivors," all retired people receiving social security benefits, all people having employment through political appointment, all members of unions and associations the purpose of which is to exert pressure for legislation, etc.

I wish you every success in your efforts, and I even will consider employment as your editor.

Shock Wave Over Soviet Explosion

LONDON (AP)—A shock wave of alarm and dismay surged across Western Europe today in the wake of the Soviet nuclear superbomb explosion.

Government leaders spoke out in anger against the Soviet defiance of worldwide appeals not to test the bomb. Newspapers denounced the blast as a brutal crime against humanity, a political terror weapon aimed at covering the non-Communist world, a threat to the very existence of the human race.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru expressed grave concern. Japanese political leaders were indignant. But in general the Asian and African governments were silent, as they have been since the Soviet Union resumed nuclear testing Sept. 1.

Pearl of the fallout expected from the blast, governments prepared to test milk, green vegetables and other foods for radioactivity. British officials made plans to issue emergency supplies of dried milk for babies should fresh milk become dangerously contaminated.

Says Special Favors Lead to Dishonesty

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today that persons wanting honesty among public officials should quit asking special favors.

He made the comment at a news conference when reporters asked him about a weekend announcement that a group of House members would campaign to reform the state government.

Faubus said he was speaking in general terms and wasn't criticizing the efforts of the representatives.

He didn't specify anyone he thought might have been seeking special favors. He said that honest, civic-minded citizens should not object to reform movements when they are needed.

Faubus said only honesty among people generally would bring considerable improvement. "I don't think anything is wrong with this government or with the federal government that can't be helped by this," he said.

He said that honesty among people generally would bring considerable improvement.

Yours for just a few thousand votes to count in any national election.

EDITOR'S REJOINER: Mr. Jackson cooks up an alarming prospect. But I distinctly said at Arkadelphia that the only ones I proposed to disenfranchise were "persons receiving welfare cash grants or surplus commodities" — and that, of course, for only as long as they continued to receive same. As for the rest of the organizational list — he is speculating on something I neither intended nor said.

As for an editorial or speech writer, Mr. Jackson couldn't stand the pace. I do my own research, write my own pieces, do my own typing, and sometimes my own linotyping. That way, mistakes are few because only one person has handled the material. And I had rather be factually right than flattered President. — Washburn.

Hurricane May Level British Honduras City

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Giant hurricane Hattie smashed into British Honduras today, possibly inflicting a disaster on the capital city of Belize, and spread flash floods through the British crown colony and on deep into Guatemala.

Miami Weather Bureau storm forecasters said Belize, a city of 31,000 population, may have suffered a disaster as a 15-foot tide pushed up by the hurricane blasted the coastline.

Such a tide, said forecaster Gilbert Clark, might have engulfed the city.

The hurricane center struck directly at Belize at 7:30 a.m. (EST). For hours, the city was pounded by mighty winds and tides.

At 11 a.m. (EST), Hattie was centered near latitude 17 north, longitude 88.8 west, about 50 miles southwest of Belize. It was moving west-southwest at 10 miles per hour.

The steady hurricane winds around the center had dropped from 150 to 100 m.p.h. Clark said Belize took the highest winds and strongest tides the storm could throw.

"There could be a disaster there," said forecaster Gilbert Clark. "This hurricane is big enough to do it."

The capital lies almost at sea level. A storm tide striking the coast would meet no resistance except from a sea wall which forecasters said would be inadequate. The shoreline is barren and swampy.

Residents of Belize fled from their wooden homes to public shelters Monday night. Power failed at 4 a.m. as first gales from the hurricane began to lash the colony. A city official reported: "We look for a severe lashing."

The hurricane, with winds reaching as high as 200 miles an hour in gusts, probably will spread flood waters throughout Guatemala and the Yucatan Peninsula before breaking up against interior mountain ranges, Clark said. Hattie collided with a strengthening high pressure front and swung toward Central America after first threatening to move into Cuba and south Florida.

Information on the program is not too well known and the Golden Age Club arranged this special meeting in order to better inform their members and the public on the medical care assistance requirements.

UA Student Leaps From 9th Floor

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Sheriff Hollis Spencer said a despondent 18-year-old University of Arkansas freshman leaped from the ninth floor of a dormitory today. He was critically injured and was given little chance of recovery.

Spencer identified the student as L. C. Vaughn Jr. of Waco, Texas, a student in the College of Arts and Sciences.

The youth's parents, who had come to take him home, were in a first floor office of the building. Spencer said young Vaughn had been despondent for the past few days and the university notified his parents after he had discussed suicide with several Fayetteville ministers.

The sheriff said young Vaughn was packed, ready to return to Texas, when he went to a lounge on the ninth floor of the 10-story building, smashed a window and jumped.

He landed on the pavement and was rushed to a Fayetteville hospital, where officials gave him little chance of recovery.

Russia Admits Bomb Beyond Expectation; Blast Angers World

Condemnation of Russia the World Over

By ANTHONY WHITE

LONDON (AP)—Shock waves of anger and condemnation beat around the world today as a result of the Soviet Union's super-bomb blasts.

Anti-Soviet demonstrations were staged in Britain and Italy. Government leaders condemned the nuclear explosions as a lack of decency of world opinion. Newspapers denounced the blasts as madness, a brutal crime against humanity, as a terror intended to force the non-Communist world into cowering surrender.

The Soviet press and radio made no mention of Monday's big bomb blast, the most powerful ever set off by man.

But Soviet Premier Khrushchev told a restricted meeting of the Soviet party congress in the Kremlin at its closing session Tuesday that the scientists had calculated "but we won't get angry with them for this."

A hint that the tests were over was seen in a Moscow radio report that a convoy of transport ships and icebreakers was forming to leave the area of Novaya Zemlya, the arctic island site of the experiments believed to have culminated in "an explosion" of about 50 megatons.

Seismographs in Sweden and Britain recorded a new shock wave today. A seismologist at Kew Observatory in England said the shock may have been from a 15 or 20 megaton nuclear device, but scientists at Sweden's Uppsala Observatory said it appeared to be Continued on Page Two

Complains U. S. Ships are Spying

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Defense Ministry complained today that U.S. planes and ships spied intensively on the just-completed series of Soviet rocket shots into the Pacific.

The ministry's paper, Red Star, quoted the commander of the Soviet observation fleet as saying: "U.S. ships and planes did not leave the target area and the Soviet ships in peace even for a single moment."

"U.S. aviation daily buzzed Soviet ships, flying dangerously low. These planes flew virtually a few inches above our aircraft. The U.S. ships maneuvered in such a way that they interfered with our work."

The article added that the rocket shots landed with great accuracy in the predetermined target area after traveling 7,500 miles from the launching point in the Soviet Union.

Teamsters Revolt Test Is Today

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A major test of the strength of the Cincinnati Teamsters Union revolt will be made today in a National Labor Relations Board election to determine the union preferences of 1,000 former members.

Mistake Brings Laugh From Red Delegates

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev declared today the giant bomb exploded Monday exceeded the 50-megaton calculation of the scientists but "we won't get angry with them for this."

The statement was made in a brief speech at the closing session of the Communist party congress in the Kremlin. It was the first announcement in Russia that the bomb had been exploded, and even then it was made first only to a restricted session of the congress.

"The scientists made a slight mistake in the evaluation of the bomb," Khrushchev said. "It proved somewhat bigger than 50 megatons, but we won't get angry with them for this."

The announcement brought a storm of applause, of cheering and some laughter from the congress.

Khrushchev quickly calmed the delegates with a warning that to achieve the program "we will need work, work and only work."

The statement was made to the full membership of 4,500, with no Western foreign correspondents present.

Earlier in the brief concluding session, Ekaterina Furtseva, only woman member, was dropped from the Presidium, ruling group of the party.

MOSCOW (AP) — Ekaterina Furtseva, only woman member of the Presidium, was dropped from this ruling group of the Communist party in voting made public today.

There was no explanation. She presumably retains her job in the government as minister of culture.

Premier Khrushchev was re-elected the party's first secretary. Also dropped from the Presidium was Nuriddin Mukhitdinov, only representative of the Asian peoples in the U.S.S.R.

Elected to the Presidium were Khrushchev; President Leonid I. Brezhnev; party Secretary Frol I. Kozlov; First Deputy Premier A. N. Kosygin; party Secretary O. V. Kusin; First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan; N. V. Podgorny, first secretary of the Ukrainian Communist party; D. S. Polyansky, the Russian Republic premier; party Secretary Mikhail A. Suslov; and N. M. Shvernik, chairman of the party's Control Commission.

One new man was chosen to the presidium: Gennadi Ivanovich Voronov, a young agricultural expert who has been mentioned as working at Khrushchev's right hand.

Selection of party officers was the final act of the 22nd Soviet Communist party congress, which then adjourned. It had been meeting in the Kremlin since Oct. 17.

Hope Star's editor said today that color film of the "Ice Capades" returned to him this morning by Eastman's Dallas laboratory confirmed the suggested exposures printed yesterday's black-and-white picture layout. Of the 40 color shots 38 were good and the remaining two "passable."

Washburn's data for "Ice Capades" follows: Color, Hi-Speed Ektachrome B for artificial light (ASA 125), 1/250th of a second at F 1.5; black and white, Tri-X film 1/250th at either F 5.6 or F 8. Yesterday's pictures in The Star were shot at F 2.8, but the editor lost five of the 10 due to overexposure.

NEW FORM, SAME MONEY-In an effort to make individual income tax reporting, if not painless, at least simpler, the Internal Revenue Service has revamped Form 1040. The new, two-page Form 1040, shown above, combines the better features of the first two pages of the 1960 Form 1040 and Form 1040W, which has been discontinued. Improved printing techniques have also enabled the service to revise the format of the instruction booklet. Instructions are now arranged in a sequence to match the lines on the Form 1040. Unnecessary technical language and phraseology has been eliminated. The simplest form of all, the punch card Form 1040A, will still be used by those who prefer it. In December, 61 million packages of instructions and forms will be mailed, aimed at providing each taxpayer with the simplest form he can file.

WONDERLAND IN GOTHAM-In startling contrast to towering Fifth Avenue apartment houses in the background is the House of Hansel and Gretel, left, nearing completion in New York's Central Park. It is part of the Children's Zoo, a gift to the children of the city by Senator and Mrs. Herbert Lehman. In keeping with the fairytale atmosphere, new light poles in the zoo are fashioned in the shape of giant daisies, right, lilies and other flowers.

a normal earth tremor. Using unusually strong language, Indian Prime Minister Nehru declared Monday's giant explosion was highly regrettable and "no amount of argument that it was done in self-defense could wash off the wrong."

But most African and Asian government leaders were silent or mild in their reaction.

Thousands of Italian students left classrooms and demonstrated in Rome and other cities and clashed with police in some places.

Demonstrators in London staged a sitdown outside the Soviet Embassy and about 24 were arrested when they attempted to invade the embassy.

A deputation of five young campaigners for nuclear disarmament was admitted to the London Embassy and was told by the second secretary, Gennady Stepanov, that the Soviet Union had decided to resume the nuclear tests started Sept. 1 "with an aching heart."

"My country wanted to sober up some of the generals in the Pentagon by these nuclear tests," he explained, denying the Soviet Union was trying to terrorize the world.

He said he believed his country had finished its current series of tests.

But with unusual vehemence, the Cairo paper Al Gumhuriya said future generations "will curse the hour" of the Soviet blast, which it said marked "the beginning of the end—the end of light and humanity."

The British government denounced the latest Soviet blast as "wanton disregard for the welfare and safety of the human race."

It prepared to issue emergency supplies of dried milk for babies should fresh milk become dangerously contaminated from radioactive fallout.

Smokey Says:

Mr. Sam Going Home to Bonham

Rayburn, 79, was brought from his room on a stretcher. His eyes were closed. A towel was around his head. He has been under treatment since Oct. 2.

Thinks Adlai Should Be Fired Now

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Tampa Tribune quotes Gen. James A. Van Fleet as saying Adlai E. Stevenson, ambassador to the United Nations, should have been fired because of the Cuban invasion which fizzled.

Van Fleet said also that Berlin and Laos are lost and that there is only a 50-50 chance of keeping South Viet Nam out of Communist control, the Tribune said in today's editions.

Van Fleet, former commander of the 8th Army in Korea, was to report to Ft. Bragg, N.C., today. He was called out of retirement to supervise the training of Army units in guerrilla warfare.

The Tribune said Van Fleet departed from his post in a talk on Florida's water resources before the Natural Resources and Waterways Committee in nearby Lakeland Monday night.

The newspaper quoted Van Fleet as saying, "I would not like to read tomorrow that which I say tonight."

He was quoted as saying Berlin was lost when "they made the agreement at the end of World War II."

The Tribune account added: He said Viet Nam has a strong national pride, "but a white face has no place in that country."

Van Fleet said Stevenson "should have been fired when he said he would not support the armed action by this country against Fidel Castro during the ill-fated Cuban invasion."

The general said this country sponsored the invasion and gave full Navy escort and air cover to and from training bases that the United States established. After Stevenson took his stand, Van Fleet said, the United States refused to go through with plans to give direct support to the landing force.

It is expected to slash water projects expenditures because of a rising deficit.

"I would want any cuts in public works to be modest and not beyond its proportion to an overall cut in spending," McClellan said. "There are other areas where cuts could do less injury to economy and national progress than in public works."

Housework Losing Battle For Her!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I am a terrible housekeeper — the world's worst. Every morning I resolve to make our new ranch house shining bright. But, try as I will, it still looks as if a hurricane had struck it when my husband comes home for dinner.

I can't even keep myself and our three little children tidy. Honestly, it's discouraging. In despair I consulted our doctor. He assured me I was in excellent health and physically capable of doing the housework. On the credit side, I'm reasonably intelligent, sociable, easy to live with and, if I do say it myself, a swell cook.

My husband is a hard-working, generous fellow who gives us everything but, like his mother, he demands neatness. Maybe I've got buck fever about this—his mother is the perfect housekeeper. What ever the reason, I want to do better for his sake. I love him above everything. Any suggestions? —Willing to Try.

Dear Willing: You're probably trying too hard—with that perfect housekeeper of a mother-in-law breathing down your neck. Forget her. Work out a system of your own. Organization is the key. I speak from experience, having learned by the trial and error method.

Each morning, take a pad and pencil, sit at the kitchen table while breakfast is cooking and write out your plan for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tarpley have been visiting in Woodville, Texas with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Leslie and daughters, Leta Jo and Kathryn Irene.

Mrs. Norma Huskey of Arp, Texas and Mrs. Dot Bald of Overton, Texas spent the weekend with Mrs. Joe Bailey and their mother, Mrs. Minnie Hendrix.

including marketing and the evening meal. Budget your time. Read the woman's page of this newspaper for short cuts. Make it a habit to put things back where they belong. Tidy as you go. Be one jump ahead of yourself.

Get the children to help. Treat household chores as part of their education. They're never too young to learn. Give each a place for toys and belongings. Paste a gold star on the closet of the tidiest.

Make personal grooming a morning must. Before long you and the children will have acquired the habit of orderliness. Once acquired you'll find leisure to catch up on all you've longed to do but never had the time. To repeat, organization is the answer. And that goes for life, as well as housekeeping!

Dear Helen: Here's a change of pace for your column; a letter from a happily married woman with no problems! My husband loves me. I love him. We have two darling children; a little girl of 12 and a boy 15. Being in fine physical shape I've become obsessed with the idea of having one

Terms Blast Only to Frighten

By HARRY KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union's huge nuclear burst—which may double the fallout coming from all the current Soviet tests—has been denounced by the White House as a device to incite "fright and panic."
The immediate fallout from the blast is expected to reach North America in three to five days. The White House statement, obviously issued with President Kennedy's approval, said the Soviet effort to spread fear will be repelled—"not only by the steadfastness of free men but by the power of the arms which men will use to defend each other."
The test, said the White House, does not affect the nuclear balance of power. It said the United States has "ample military power to destroy any nation which would unleash nuclear war."
There was no official word on what bearing the explosion may have on the possibility of the United States resuming tests in the atmosphere.
The shadow of Monday's 50-megaton explosion—the invisible cloud of radioactive fallout—began its wind-borne sweep around the world.
U.S. Weather Bureau specialists said wind patterns indicate the immediate fallout was being carried southeastward from its point of detonation in the Soviet Arctic.
Robert List, one of the bureau's fallout specialists, said the mass of radioactive ash would likely swing east ultimately and would "reach the North American continent in three to five days, depending on the winds."
The gigantic blast—which the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission estimated at 50 megatons—may have doubled the fallout unleashed by all the previous blasts in the Soviet series which began Sept. 1.
Until Monday's explosion, the Soviets were estimated to have detonated bombs with a total yield of more than 50 megatons of energy yield—including the big Oct. 23 explosion which U.S. scientists now estimate at 25 megatons. A megaton is equal to one million tons of TNT in energy.
Thus, with a single 50-megaton bomb, the Russians almost equalled the explosive force of more than two dozen earlier tests. The blast could have created almost as much lingering fallout as all the previous tests, depending on how "dirty" it was.
Dr. Ralph E. Lapp, a nuclear scientist who is outside the government, said he believes the monster bomb was a very dirty one.
Lingering fallout is the long-lasting radioactive atoms speared into the stratosphere, to be blown around the world and finally to settle to earth.
What does this amount of fallout mean to public health? The U.S. Public Health Service said last week in a statement anticipating the 50-megaton explosion that the fallout from it and the previous tests should not reach levels that would cause any undue concern.
Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said Monday he thinks the danger of atmospheric pollution by nuclear tests "has been greatly exaggerated."
Speaking in San Antonio, Tex., Eisenhower said the advice he had when president led him to believe tests could continue for many more years without danger.
Another former president, Harry S. Truman, shrugged off the Soviet test with the comment in Chicago: "We set off a tremendous one in the Pacific one time."
Truman likely was referring to the hydrogen bomb device that wiped out an atoll in the Marshall Islands in 1952.
Secretary of State Dean Rusk said the Soviets took a "wholly unnecessary step" in exploding the heavyweight bomb. "If they thought they could intimidate the world they're wrong."
"It was a senseless and pointless thing to do and a wholly unnecessary step that couldn't add to technological, scientific or military knowledge," Rusk told newsmen in Honolulu where he stopped on his flight to Japan.
Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said in Syracuse, N.Y.,

Here Are the Young Ladies Who Lead the Senior Band

THE GREAT WALL OF BERLIN

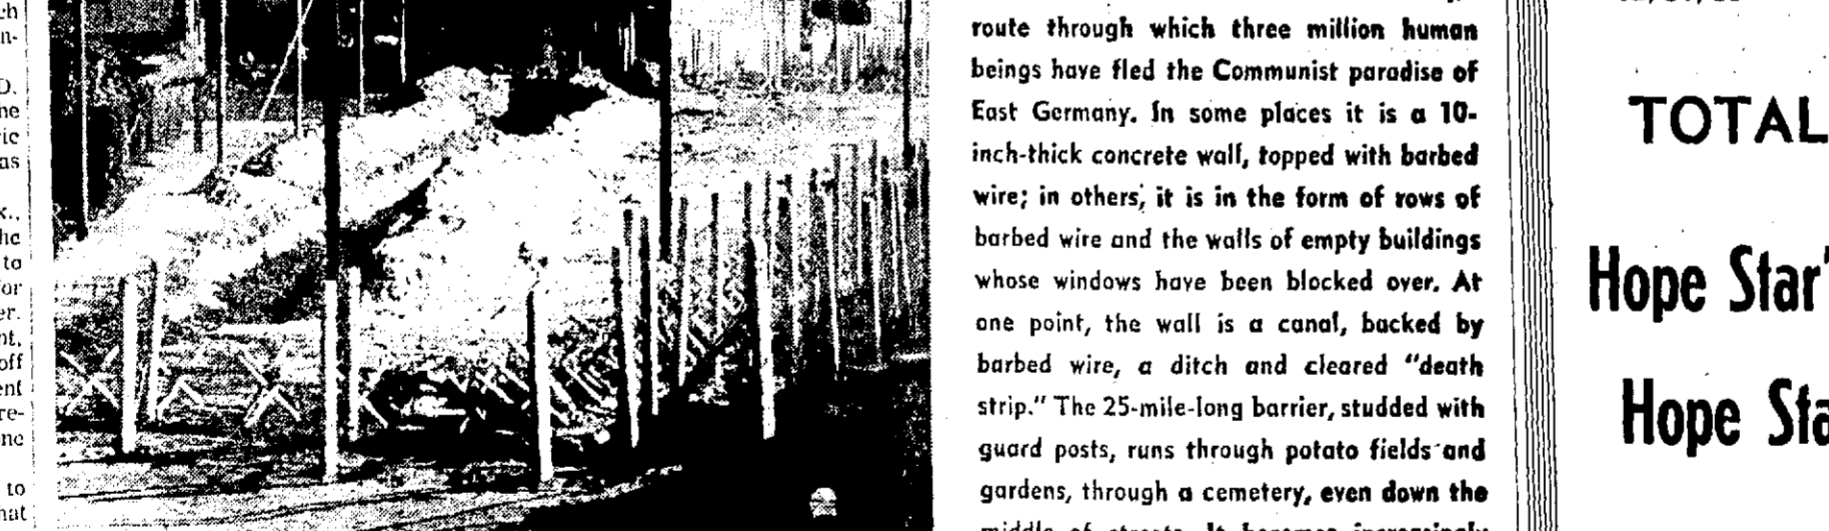

It started with barbed wire and concrete blocks . . .

and the forced evacuation of East German dwellings that happened to be on the border . . .

while Allied troops and West Berliners stood by, unable to help those behind the wall . . .

to which have now been added trenches and bulldozed "death strips."

The Great Wall of China was built to keep foreign invaders out. The Great Wall of Berlin has been erected to seal off an escape route through which three million human beings have fled the Communist paradise of East Germany. In some places it is a 10-inch-thick concrete wall, topped with barbed wire; in others, it is in the form of rows of barbed wire and the walls of empty buildings whose windows have been blocked over. At one point, the wall is a canal, backed by barbed wire, a ditch and cleared "death strip." The 25-mile-long barrier, studded with guard posts, runs through potato fields and gardens, through a cemetery, even down the middle of streets. It becomes increasingly difficult to breach, yet a few manage to cross every day...and others fail to make it.

Rape Trial Transfer Overruled

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Circuit Judge William J. Kirby overruled today a motion seeking transfer of the rape trial of three Negroes to federal court.
Kirby also overruled a motion to quash a felony information against the three, who are charged in an attack on a 16-year-old white girl in North Little Rock last March 11.
The judge then began hearing witnesses on a motion to quash the jury panel on grounds that Negroes were systematically excluded from it.
If all the motions are disposed of today, trial of the trio will start Tuesday.
The three, Riley Williams, 17, Troy Alexander, 16, and Marvin Aron Hammond, 16, are charged with forcing the girl from a parked car and assaulting her on a lonely lovers' lane.
Police said the girl identified one of the youths and her male companion identified a second. Neither identified the third.
The trial is expected to become entangled in civil rights disputes. The youths' attorney, Thad Williams, moved to quash the jury panel because he said jury commissioners manipulate the number of Negro jurors.
Kirby overruled a motion contending the state rape law is unconstitutional since the death penalty is only meted out to Negroes who have raped white women.
Williams, formerly of Little Rock but who is now practicing law in California, moved that the case be transferred to federal District Court and that the information charging the youths be quashed because they were denied a preliminary hearing and a grand jury investigation. This motion also was overruled.
The trial has been delayed because of a federal court edict charging racial discrimination in the selection of jurors for the trials of Negroes. The system of jury selections was modified at the beginning of the current term.

Bear Attack Brings Suit
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Muhammed Dautovic is suing the Yugoslav government for damages because a bear attacked his wife.
The wife was badly mangled while herding sheep. Muhammed contended in court that because of the game preservation laws, the bears have so multiplied that they have become a danger to both man and livestock.

Schools Received 45.5 Per Cent
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Public schools have received 45.5 per cent of Arkansas' allocated annual general revenues since 1945, the year the Revenue Stabilization Act went into effect, Education Commissioner Arch Ford said. That is one of the facts turned up in a research report which will recount the federal, state and local contributions to school financing.
Arkansas has the nation's largest school plant, located at De Queen.

Chapter XXVI

Beecher saw that there was a newspaper on a chair at their table. It was the European edition of a New York paper. To distract him, he said, "Mind if I look at your paper? I've been out of touch for a day or so."

"Yeah," the sergeant said, nodding slowly. He seemed to be taking an inventory of Beecher's soiled clothes and sand-stiffened hair. "I wish I could pin you down, mister. No offense meant, understand. But I got a thing about faces."

Beecher shook out the paper and turned to page two. It was like snapping on a light while facing an unexpected mirror. His picture glared at him from the middle column. The caption read: "Murder Suspect Lost in Missing Plane."

The story was sketchy, but accurate.

The telephone rang demandingly in the silence, and Beecher's muscles became tense as the bartender went to answer it. He looked out of the booth an instant later and cried in a singsong voice: "Monsieur Norton. Monsieur Norton."

Beecher thanked him and hurried to the booth.

"Yes?" he said.

"It's all right."

"What room are you in?"

"It is 841."

"I'll be there in a few minutes."

Beecher replaced the phone and paid his bill at the bar. He was turning with blundering haste toward the door, when the sergeant called out sharply: "Hold it, Mac."

Beecher looked around slowly, a hand on the doorknob, a fixed smile on his face. "Yes?"

"The paper, Mac," he said, in a deceptively gentle voice.

"I'm sorry," Beecher said.

The sergeant put out his hand for the paper.

Beecher said suddenly, "Is the game open to strangers?"

"Yes, it is," the sergeant said. He punched the redhead on the shoulder. "We got some action, finally. Garsong Start the beer flowing this way."

The sergeant loosened his tie and nodded at the row of beer bottles along one edge of the table. "No dice unless you hit 'em Underland?"

Beecher nodded and dropped his last money—2,000 Moroccan francs—on the middle of the table.

The soldiers faded him with six American dollars.

Beecher rolled a seven.

"Twelve bucks."

"Roll 'em."

This time the dice bounded off the table with a gay tinkling sound, and came up six-five.

The bus fare to Casablanca was waiting on the table. And it belonged to him. "I'll shoot the $24.00," he said.

They had to go to their wallets then. "Okay," the sergeant said, "Now make them bottles ring like a brass band, Mac."

Beecher made six on his third pass.

"Got to leave," Beecher said.

"Ain't that sweet. You're going to meet the chick now, I guess. Buy her some champagne with our dough."

"With my dough," Beecher said evenly. He reached for the money, but the sergeant caught his wrist.

"Hold it, sweetheart," he said softly.

Beecher knew a fight or brawl would ruin everything; the Moroccan police would throw all of them into jail. They would want to look at passports. Someone would have seen his picture.

"Keep your money, if you can't afford to lose it," he said. "But we had a word for guys like you when I was in the army. It wasn't a cute one."

"So you was in the service, eh?" The sergeant nodded thoughtfully. "What'd you do?"

"I was a flyer."

"Yeah? What'd you fly?"

"B-17's," Beecher said wearily. "They've got four engines and a high tail fin."

"Everybody knows B-17's. What about your fighter support?"

"We had P-47's. Its nose is oval-shaped and the leading edge of the wing tapers into a round tip."

"Well, well," the sergeant said. He looked uncomfortable.

Beecher let out his breath slowly. "Let me buy a drink."

"Pick up your money. This is on me." The sergeant stuck out a wide hand. "O'Doul's the name. Like the old ballplayer Lefty O'Doul. Only my first name is Marty. Red-head here we call Bricktop. Bricktop Ladley. But it should be Goldbricktop."

The redhead suddenly shook the sergeant's shoulder. "Look!" he said happily.

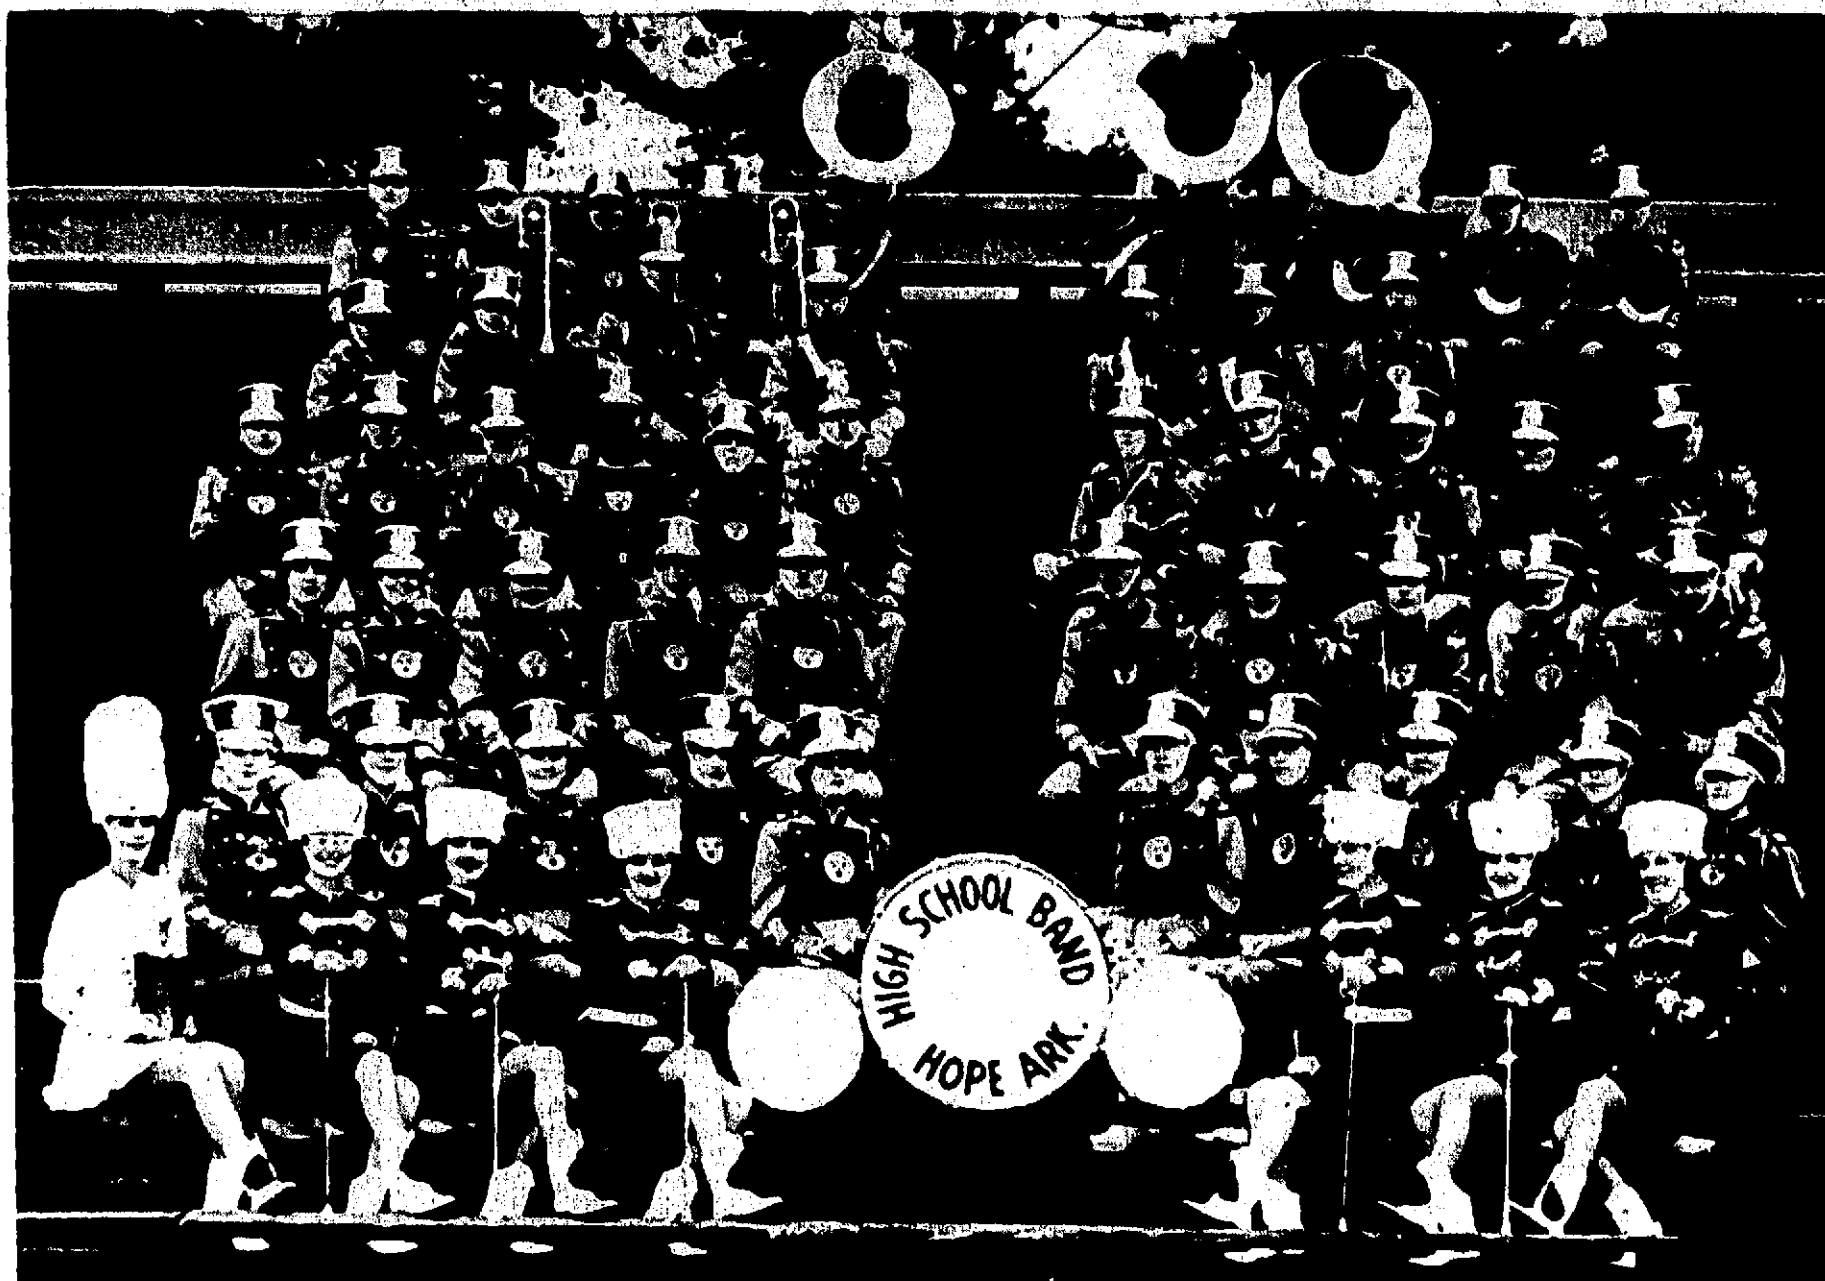

Two French girls had taken stools at the bar, slender twittering brunettes with fox faces as empty and brilliant as painted masks, and shaved legs that gleamed like chalk in the soft light. Their wedge-shaped sandals twisted with a promise of excitement as they smiled at the soldiers.

Beecher tapped the newspaper. "I'll take this along. Okay?"

"Sure." The sergeant laughed explosively. "All of a sudden, ain't in a literary mood."

K Apparently Has Won His Right to Lead

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Associated Press News Analysis

BERLIN (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev apparently has won his war with the internal Soviet opposition to his leadership, but the cost probably will be heavy.

Announcement that the mummified remains of Stalin will be removed from the gloomy tomb in Red Square can be viewed as a signal victory for Khrushchev after more than six years of struggle.

It probably means that while Khrushchev retains his position as leader, he has little prospect of being dethroned. The dictatorship more to his economic projects at home, including his frequently failing virgin lands program for agriculture. The relaxations, they could argue, brought unrest in Poland, revolt in Hungary, setbacks for communism. The policy even lost real estate Khrushchev gave up the Soviet hold in Austria, the first time communism ever voluntarily surrendered any important territory it had occupied.

Khrushchev's economic policies abroad included aid to countries with anti-Communist regimes, to the anger of the Chinese Communists. Such policies, along with Khrushchev's deviations from Stalin's pure Leninism, contributed to the costly public display of Peiping-Moscow irritation.

The economic policies at home called for decentralization in Khrushchev's eagerness to get his 20-year program on the road. Decentralization of authority in industry and agriculture could remove bureaucratic roadblocks hindering swifter Soviet development. But it also represented a danger. It meant diffusing authority, the right of lower levels to make decisions without prior reference to the Moscow center.

In brief, the policies could imperil the Kremlin's iron grip on the whole country. They could foster such problems as regional —within the Soviet Union itself.

In the U.S.S.R., the people for the first time learned details of rivalries—even national rivalries Stalin's blood purges, known for so long to people abroad, Khrushchev's 1956 denunciation of Stalin, it must be remembered was not public property in the U.S.S.R. and the Communist bloc.

Now the men who for so many years collaborated with Khrushchev, both under Stalin and after Stalin, are paraded publicly as murderers and monsters.

Khrushchev had to be somewhat desperate to risk such a shock to the public of Communist countries. He must have needed so badly to win out that apparently he felt the risk was worth the result.

Chrysler to Answer Union Offer

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. will give the United Auto Workers Union an answer today to a proposal which the union says would permit pulling together quickly all economic elements in a new contract.

The union made its new proposal Monday night. UAW President Walter P. Reuther said it "takes into account the economics of Chrysler," which lost $20.5 million in the first nine months this year.

As the bargainers went back to the table only 11 hours remained under what amounts to a union deadline for wrapping up a complete new contract with the last of the auto industry's Big Three.

Settlements were reached privately at Ford Motor Co. and General Motors Corp.

The union's International Executive Board meets at 3 p.m. It warned Chrysler last week that if no new contract was in hand by that time it would serve 48-hour notice of contract termination.

Chrysler made the UAW an economic offer last week that both Reuther and Chrysler Vice President John D. Leary said paralleled in most details contracts negotiated with GM and Ford.

U. S. Sugar Harvest Is Expanding

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—One of the sweetest economic developments of south Florida is a sugar boom touched off when Fidel Castro's revolutionary antics cut Cuba out of the U. S. sugar market.

American sugar men, and many former bigtime growers in Cuba's one-crop economy, are building refineries and planting sugar cane in vast Everglades areas which for centuries produced little but sawgrass and snakes.

Their $100-million sugar expansion program hopes to recoup losses which Cubans and Americans suffered in the Castro appropriation of Cuba's sugar industry.

Eleven mills are either in operation, under construction, or in the planning stage.

Florida's sugar production, only 30,000 tons 10 years ago, is expected to be more than 700,000 tons in 1962, and 500,000 annually within a few years.

Land prices in the new "sugar bowl" have jumped. An acre that brought $25 two years ago may be worth $500 now. Owners of choice land near Lake Okeechobee are getting as much as $900 an acre.

Santa Claus Not Likely to Suffer

MARINE CITY, Mich. (AP)—An 8-year-old Marine City girl has presidential assurance today that Santa Claus is not suffering from the effects of atmospheric nuclear tests by the Russians.

Michelle Rochon, a school girl in this southeastern Michigan community, wrote to President Kennedy last week. Michelle expressed concern for the safety of Santa Claus since Soviet nuclear tests were close to the North Pole.

Today, Michelle said she received an answer from President Kennedy.

The President's letter said, in part:

"I share your concern about the atmospheric testing by the Soviet Union, not only for the North Pole but for countries throughout the world; not only for Santa Claus, but for people throughout the world."

"However, you must not worry about Santa Claus. I talked with him yesterday and he is fine. He will be making his rounds this Christmas."

Will Study Hog Stomach Ulcers

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Dogs, like humans, worry themselves into having stomach ulcers.

Purdue University has been given $45,000 to find out.

The National Institute of Health granted the money for research by Dr. G. D. Goetsch and Dr. T. M. Curtin of the Purdue Veterinary School. It is hoped the project also may result in something to help prevent or treat ulcers in humans.

Not Likely Russia Will Heed Plea

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Nonaligned members of the United Nations pushed today for action on an appeal to the nuclear powers to call a voluntary halt to all test explosions. There was no sign the Soviet Union or the West would heed it.

Pressure for a vote mounted in the 103-nation Political Committee. The appeal had the backing of the powerful Asian-African group, as well as the Scandinavians and many Latin American states.

The support appeared enough to put across the appeal, but delegates gloomily predicted it would do little if any good in view of the current Soviet test series and warnings by both Britain and the United States that they might have to resume testing in the atmosphere to keep up.

Both the United States and Britain have come out against any U.N. endorsement of a voluntary moratorium. They contend the Soviet Union's violation of its moratorium, climaxed by its mammoth blast Monday proves the futility of approving a new one.

Both Western powers have insisted that the only effective step would be a test ban treaty with effective international controls.

The Soviet Union has made clear it will abide by no moratorium until it has done all the testing it plans to do.

The United States claims that even if the Soviet Union does stop testing now, it could only be to analyze the results of its latest test series and to prepare for new ones.

India, sponsoring the call for a voluntary moratorium along with Ethiopia, Ghana, Nepal, the United Arab Republic and Yugoslavia, failed Friday in an attempt to win quick consideration of the appeal.

Nixon Tells Candidates to Fight It Out

By ROBERT T. GRAY

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Eight candidates for the primary, Richard M. Nixon advises Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

The former vice president and losing candidate for the presidency last year said Monday night, "clash in primaries" to deter mine who would be the best candidate to challenge President Kennedy in 1964.

Nixon, who is seeking the Republican nomination for governor of California, has said he will not campaign for the GOP presidential nomination. He declared Monday night he would not enter any primaries in 1964.

He addressed an overflow crowd of 8,000—more than 1,500 diners at $100 a plate and a gal will be making his rounds this Christmas.

Nixon returned to New York City after the dinner aboard Rockefeller's private plane, on which he and the governor had traveled to Syracuse.

Nixon refused, both at the dinner and a press conference that preceded it, to take sides between Rockefeller and Goldwater as the Republican presidential nominee in 1964. He said his mission was to unite the Republican party, not divide it.

the old Shumaker Ammunition Depot closed Nov. 15, seven months earlier than was previously announced. The 64,000-acre installation was sold by parcels primarily to two firms. At one time, 35,000 persons were employed at the depot which was built in 1944.

more baby before it's too late. I am 43 and my husband 45. Does our age rule us out as proper parents? While we'd adore having another child maybe it would be doing the child an injustice. What are your thoughts? -Happy Wife.

Dear Happy: The baby born into a happy family is a lucky baby. If your doctor approves, there is no reason in the world why you and your husband wouldn't be just about the nicest parents a child could wish for. Your age should be no barrier. With years come wisdom.

Friends of mine, a couple with a grown daughter, had a little boy when in their forties. Through him they recaptured their youth while he, under their wise and loving guidance, developed into a remarkably brilliant young man.

Memo to Need of Advice, Uniontown, Pa.: Ask the youth leader of your church to talk to your parents about the necessity of a social life for youngsters, as well as oldsters. If they refuse to let you attend school social activities it is their responsibility to provide you with the equivalent at home. But no steady dating! Judging from your letter you are far too young.

Selection of Jury in Rape Trials

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Prosecutor John T. Jernigan said today he would seek the death penalty for three young Negroes being tried for rape.

Selection of a jury started today after Circuit Judge William J. Kirby overruled four preliminary defense motions Monday on behalf of Riley Williams, 17, and Troy Alexander and Armvin Aron Hammond, both 16.

They are charged with forcing a 16-year-old white girl from a parked car on a North Little Rock lovers' lane and raping her last March 11.

The four motions overruled were to transfer the trial to federal court, to quash the charge because there was no preliminary hearing or grand jury investigation, to quash the jury panel on grounds that Negroes are excluded from it, and to invalidate the state rape law because only Negroes are executed for raping white women.

County jury commissioners testified that Negroes are not excluded from juries and that panels are selected from the telephone directory and city directory and check against poll tax receipt books.

The jury panel includes eight Negroes.

Lee Henslee, superintendent of the state penitentiary, testified that only one white man had been executed for rape since 1913.

Shock Recorded in Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 12-minute shock wave from the Russian superbomb was recorded at the Little Rock Weather Bureau Monday.

The shock wave was measured from 9:35 to 9:47 a.m. Seattle, Wash., charted it at 9 a.m. and Athens, Ga., recorded it at 10:29 a.m.

Most Weather Bureau stations in the nation recorded the wave, district forecaster Dave Miller of Atlanta said.

The Little Rock Weather Bureau said the effects also were noted on a rain-measuring device at about the same intensity as those of a thunderstorm.

The shock wave will have no practical effect on the weather. It is the first such disturbance of this nature recorded since 1908 when the great Siberian meteor struck, and 1882, when a volcano erupted in Java.

MOP Trains Hit, 1 Dead, 12 Injured

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—A southbound Missouri Pacific freight train, traveling in dense fog, slammed into the rear of a Missouri Pacific passenger train two miles east of here early today, killing the freight engineer and injuring 12 other persons.

H. V. McDonald, 42, of North Little Rock, was trapped in the engine which overturned and slipped down an embankment.

Eight of the injured were hospitalized but none was believed in serious condition. The others were treated and released.

Eleven cars of the Little Rock-New Orleans freight were derailed but remained upright. The Pullman car at the rear of the passenger train was turned on its side spilling passengers about.

Hours after the accident work continued on clearing the wreckage. The passenger train, en route from Little Rock to Monroe, La., continued its trip without the Pullman.

Rail officials rerouted trains around the wreckage on two adjoining tracks.

A passenger said the train had been stopped but had started moving again when the 71-car freight rammed into it.

Railroad workers removed McDonald's body from the wreckage. One of the injured was freight fireman Ellsworth Holabur of Little Rock, who suffered a broken leg when he jumped from the cab of the Diesel locomotive struck the Pullman.

Another was a Negro Pullman porter, who wasn't brought to the hospital until several hours after the accident. He was treated for cuts and dislocated, and the hospital said it didn't have his name.

The others injured were passengers. Doctors said none was seriously hurt.

The passengers hospitalized were Mrs. Jake Leonard of Crystal City, Mo.; Edward Panek of Madison, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Nettles of Monroe; Charles Hall of Monroe, and E. H. Channel and George Starks, both of Little Rock.

Three other passengers were dismissed after emergency treatment. They were Mrs. Ola Sue Knaflman, 19, and her 15-month-old son, March of Wisner, La., and Mrs. Glenn Blankenship of Monroe.

The derailment was the second in Arkansas within two days. Monday 29 cars of a Rock Island freight train derailed near Havana, Yell County. No one was injured.

Vote Trials Are Slated to Start

DEVALIS BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Trails of eight men on alleged voting irregularities began in Prairie Circuit Court Monday and one defendant, Phillip Smith of Hazen, was quickly acquitted.

Smith had been charged with influencing a vote in the 1960 school election at Hazen.

Trial also began for Rudy Van Houten, Bill Woods and Conkey Gray, all of Hazen, for permitting fraudulent voting in the same school election.

Gray and R. C. Hartlieb and Eagle Boyd Jr. of Hazen face charges of fraudulent certification of votes in the August, 1960, runoff primary for the 19th District state senatorial post.

Van Houten was charged, along with Warren Brown and Irvin Sims of Hazen, with permitting fraudulent voting in the November, 1960, general election.

All eight men were indicted in March by the Prairie County Grand Jury.

Bus Burning Trial in Alabama

ANNISTON, Ala. (AP)—The trial of eight men charged in the mob burning of a bus—the first outbreak of violence against "Freedom Riders" in Alabama—began in federal court today.

The eight face charges of interfering with interstate transportation, a crime punishable by a 20-year prison term and a $10,000 fine on conviction. They also are charged with conspiracy.

The indictments grew out of two waves of violence May 14 that first blocked the departure of a regularly scheduled Greyhound bus, then destroyed it.

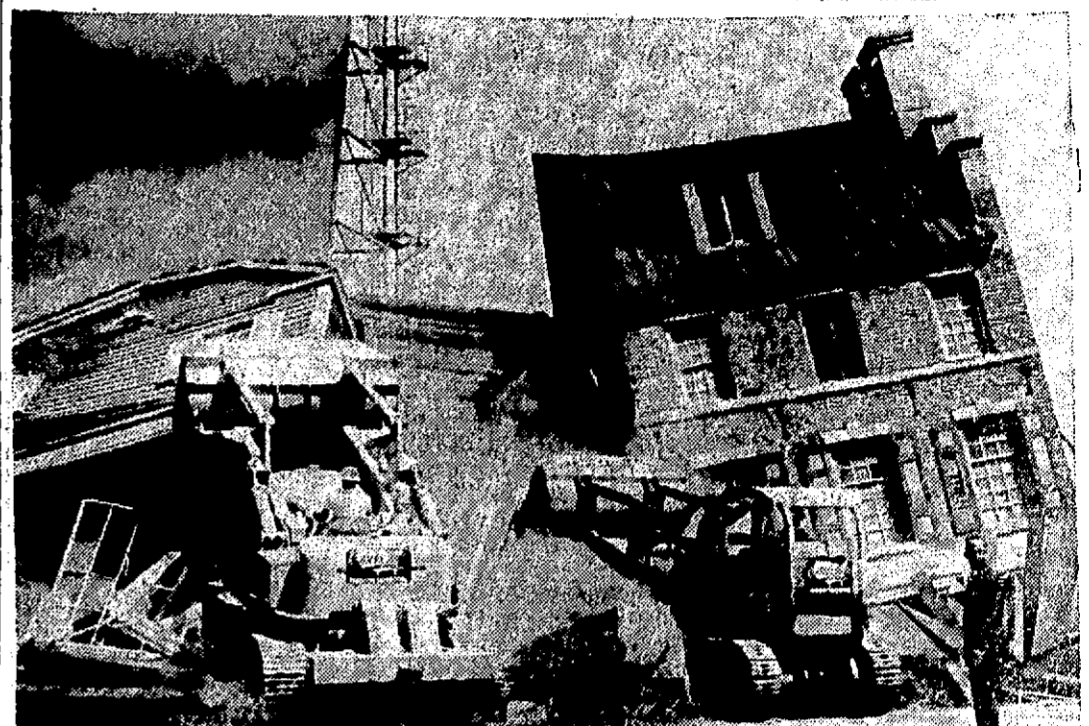

Among the 17 persons on the bus were nine Freedom Riders—five Negroes and four white persons—on a tour of the South testing bus station segregation.

The defendants, all of the Anniston area, are Kenneth L. Adams, 41; Frank B. Johnson, 42; Jerome Byron Couch, 25; Jerry Willingham, 23; William Chappell, 40; Jerry Ronald Eason, 23; Frank Tolbert, 54; and Roger Dale Cough, 19.

Defense to Rest in Duck Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The defense was expected to rest its case today in the trial of eight Stuttgart area persons charged with illegally selling wildfowl. After closing arguments, the case will go to a federal District Court jury.

Rex Leach, 53, and Gene Rose, 45, of Stuttgart, were to take the stand in their own defense today. Six others testified Monday.

They said Anthony M. Stefano, an undercover agent for the Fish and Wildlife Service, induced them to get wild ducks for him so he could give them away to his superiors and business clients.

Stefano was posing as a peanut salesman.

Tony Zerlingo, a Stuttgart rice miller and restaurant operator, said Stefano encouraged him to sell the ducks illegally. When the trial opened last Thursday, Stefano testified to buying thousands of ducks from Zerlingo and other Arkansians during the past three years.

Most of the 52 persons arrested in connection with his evidence pleaded guilty, and only eight are standing trial. Judge Gordon E. Young consolidated their cases.

Zerlingo said he had never sold a duck illegally until asked by Stefano to do so.

The other defendants who testified Monday were Mrs. Zerlingo, Bobby Joe Worthing, 26, B. R. Wages, 54, and Ira Myers, 31, all of Stuttgart, and Charles Johnson, 23 of Humphrey.

Pegler, 66, was not in court. The couple married May 11, 1959.

Hints Russian Tests to End

LONDON (AP)—Moscow Radio said a convoy of 10 transport ships and ice breakers was forming today in the Kara Sea to leave arctic waters via the Straits of Novaya Zemlya—the island site of the Soviet Union's recent series of nuclear weapon tests.

Broyles Thinks A&M Will Be Plenty Tough

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern Methodist coaches are describing Texas as "a team that should be No. 1 in the nation" while Coach Darrell Royal of Texas is saying his Longhorns beat Rice 31-7 last week. "Lucky Luck carried the signals to the huddle," he said.

Which means the psychological warfare will be hot and heavy this week as the teams prepare for a crucial Saturday in Southwest Conference football.

The conference leader, Texas, has the national No. 3 rating firmly in hand and leads the country in offense, but Royal is resuming his prophet of doom role.

Monday Royal said Southern Methodist has a tougher line than the Longhorns. The Mustangs hope so, of course, because they play Texas at Dallas Saturday.

Second place Arkansas will be at full strength when it takes on third place Texas A&M this week, Coach Frank Broyles said. And he's glad of that because he is concerned with stopping the Aggies' three good fullbacks, particularly Lee Roy Caffey, the leading ground-gainer in last week's 23-0 victory over Baylor.

Texas A&M Coach Jim Myers found his squad in good physical condition, too.

Rice, recovering from the Texas whipping, found it would be in better physical condition for Texas at Tech at Lubbock Saturday than it was against the Longhorns.

Tech's Red Raiders were dampened by a light mist Monday as they began working to meet the Rice challenge. The regulars simply jogged around the field in a light sweat shirt workout.

After an hour of work in the rain Monday, Baylor Coach John Bridgers dismissed his team. Texas Christian, which meets the Bears Saturday, scrimmaged about 45 minutes, also in the rain. Coach Abe Martin said, "We received this scrimmage. We didn't hit any last week."

The Frogs worked on defense against Baylor, but accomplished little because the rain kept the "Bear" offensive team from doing what the Baptists do best—pass.

Father, Son Story Unfolds on Saturday

By VERNON BUTLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

ATLANTA (AP) — Chapter Two of the Bobby Dodd father and son story comes next Saturday when Florida and Georgia Tech meet here in a Southeastern Conference football game.

The younger Dodd went one up last year when he helped lead Florida to an 18-17 upset of his father's Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets. Bobby Dodd Jr., who shares the quarterback job with 138-pound Larry Libertore, completed a 32-yard pass in the closing minutes as Florida drove for the winning touchdown. Dodd drove the Gators to the Tech three, and Libertore took them in for the score.

The script is about the same for the second act of the father-son drama. Tech is favored as it was last year. But there is an important difference. Florida relished the underdog role in 1960 and knocked off both LSU and Tech en route to an 8-2 season and a Gator Bowl victory over Baylor.

This year, weakened by injuries to key personnel, Florida seems to have lost the upset touch. The Gators played well but lost to Rice 19-10, and last Saturday LSU full citizenship.

Small Frys Lay It on Camden Boys

In a Little League football game Saturday morning at K-Park, Hope's "small frys" downed Camden by a lopsided score of 57 to 0.

Hope used each of its three teams as a unit, starting the League leading Whites and following with the Reds and Blues. Camden played their two teams in a similar manner.

The Whites jumped off to a quick 21 to 0 lead, going the distance the first play from scrimmage and from there on, one team was as effective as the others; as all three groups did their share of scoring.

Camden threatened only one time, moving down to the 5-yard line, where they were forced to give up the ball on downs. From there, Hope moved 55 yards on the scaled down 60 yard field for a TD.

Weather permitting, the locals will travel to Camden next Saturday morning for a return game. The group will leave from K-Park at 8:30.

R. D. Huffman did the coaching chores for the local teams Saturday in the absence of Larry Cox, James Halfield and Bobby Embury, who are the teams' regular coaches.

Flattened them 23-0.

Coach Dodd concedes he has a better team now than he believed possible two months ago. Tech vaulted to the No. 3 spot in The Associated Press top 10 after routing Southern California and Rice, tumbled after losing to LSU, and then fought its way back to its current No. 7 listing with successive triumphs over Duke, Auburn and Tulane.

Hard Not to Believe in Texas Team

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

It is pretty hard not to believe in this current Texas football team. It has proven itself.

The Longhorns have won their two toughest games of the season—and on successive Saturdays. First they battered Southwest Conference toughie Arkansas 33-7 and last week beat Rice 34-7.

The figures are more convincing: No. 3 ranking nationally, the nation's best over-all offense and top rushing offense; fifth best scoring team; and ninth in total defense.

The end result, to date: A 6-0 over-all record and first place in the SWC with 3-0.

Southern Methodist, this week's opponent, evidently is impressed. "A team that should be No. 1 in the nation" was the way scout Ralph Hawkins characterized the Longhorns after watching them manhandle Rice.

A top offensive star, quarterback James Earl Wright of Memphis State, is finished for the season because of a torn knee cartilage. He led the nation in individual total offense before being injured two weeks ago and last week was reinjured against Mississippi State.

Coach Dan Devine of Missouri has ruled that all of his practice sessions from now on will be secret to prevent information leaks to both opponents and to gamblers.

Duke Coach Bill Murray hoped for a repeat performance this week from his defense that must face Michigan. Last Saturday the Blue Devils in winning 17-6, forced North Carolina State to punt nine times. The Wolverines may not have tackle John Schopf and fullback Ken Tureaud.

No Change in Football Ratings

Michigan State and Mississippi, the nation's top two college football powers, tackle tough tests Saturday against upset-minded opponents.

The Spartans, ranked first Monday for the third week in succession, place their 5-0 record on the line in a Big Ten conference clash with resurgent Minnesota, last year's national champions who just missed climbing into the top ten in the latest rankings.

The Rebels, winners of six in a row in an undefeated campaign in which they've scored 204 points to 13 for their foes, tangle with sixth-ranked Louisiana State University in a Southeastern Conference matchup Saturday night.

Michigan State, also overpowering all opposition with 131 points while giving up only 10, retained the No. 1 spot in the latest ratings of The Associated Press' 47-man committee of sports writers and sports casters.

The Spartans, 35-0 conquerors of Indiana last Saturday, polled 31 first-place votes to eight for the Rebels, who walloped Vanderbilt 47-0 in their latest game.

On a point basis, Michigan State received 437 to 47 for Mississippi. The top teams, with first-place votes in parentheses, points figured on a 10, 9, 8, 7, etc. basis:

1. Michigan State (31) 437
2. Mississippi (8) 407

Airline Pilots Call Strike

CHICAGO (AP) — A strike of some 1,500 Trans World Airline pilots, has been called for 11:59 p.m., local time Thursday.

C. N. Sayen, president of the Air Line Pilots Association, said Monday night the National Mediation Board has been notified of the strike deadline. Appointment of a presidential fact finding board would prevent a walkout for 60 days.

TWA has approximately 1,500 pilots and the air line serves 53 cities in 23 states, plus 18 cities in Europe, Asia and Africa.

Sayen said most of the issues blocking the way to a new contract involve working hours and conditions on jet flights.

Swedish Patrol Katanga Front

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The U.N. command said today five Swedish jets are patrolling the Katanga frontier to "deter" Katanga planes from attacking forces of the central Congo government.

The announcement did not make clear, however, whether U.N. forces would take any action against central government troops which the Katanga governments claims have invaded the secessionist province and are razing villages and murdering women and children.

Premier Cyrille Adoula announced a virtual declaration of war against Katanga Monday. The premier said the Leopoldville government had launched a "police action" to liquidate Katanga's secession.

Really Wasn't Motor Trouble

DECATUR, Ala. (AP) — After Interstate 65 was opened through north Alabama last year, the highway was dotted with cars pulled up on the shoulder, drivers peering under the hoods.

Service stations along the route were busy with motorists seeking a mechanical checkup. But that noise drivers feared was motor trouble was merely their tires singing. The singing is caused by tiny ridges in the concrete to help make the highway skid-resistant.

Now the department has placed signs along the route advising travelers the cause of the noise.

Hogs Will Be at Full Strength

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles said his Arkansas Razorbacks will be at full strength Saturday for the vital Southwest Conference game with Texas A&M.

Broyles held lineman Tim Langston, Ray Trail and Dean Garret out of the 42-7 victory over Northwestern Louisiana last week to give injuries a chance to heal.

Monday the Hogs ran a dummy scrimmage against A&M plays, with the reserves playing the role of the Aggies. Broyles said he is intent on stopping A&M's fullback power. Lee Roy Caffey was the leading ground gainer in the 23-0 victory over Baylor last week, and Sam Byer can do just as much damage to a line.

The Hogs will hear the Aggie scouting report from offensive coach Steed White today.

Broyles said he considers the A&M and Rice games the big ones left on the Arkansas schedule. The loser of the A&M-Arkansas game here Saturday will be eliminated from the conference race. Both are 2-1 in SWC play.

Halfback Lance Alworth is sixth in the Southwest Conference in rushing with 256 yards on 59 carries for a 4.3 average. Quarterback George McKimney is eighth in passing with 18 completions of 37 attempts for 184 yards, three touchdowns and an average of 10.2 yards per pass.

Camden Only Unbeaten Team in AA

By WICK TEMPLE

Associated Press Sports Writer

Camden's galloping Panthers, the last unbeaten team left in Arkansas Class AA schoolboy football ranks, will keep its perfect record for at least one more week.

That's because the Panthers have an open date Friday. They'll probably improve on their 6-0 record next week when they meet sparring Magnolia.

But then, on Nov. 10, comes the test. Camden faces Smackover, which hasn't lost a Region 4AA game, in Smackover for the district championship.

The Panthers have a fleet of college-prospect backs with which to forge an unbeaten season. Leading the pack are halfback Bill Deal, fullback George McCarty and quarterback Jim Jordan.

Camden is ranked second in the state in this week's Associated Press schoolboy poll after a 19-0 triumph over Hope last week. The Panthers' victories include a 20-7 verdict over Big Nine Pine Bluff.

Smackover will get a chance to show it's ready for the Panthers when it meets Big Nine Texarkana Friday night in a non-conference game. The Bucks beat Crossett 27-7 last week. It will be non-conference night for three other 4AA teams. Crossett meets Pine Bluff, Malvern faces Benton and Camden Fairview takes on Nashville.
